RANGER DAY

Ranger Day was well attended by the Ursuline students who showed up on Friday, October 19 to show their support for the Rangers. Spirits raised by the Jesuit cheerleaders, the pep rally was brought to a climatic finish with the announcement of the second annual Homecoming King court. Members of the court included Brent Becker, Frank Hubach, Justin Kirby, Jerry Tillotson, and Mike Tullis. The prestigious honor of wearing the Burger King crown was bestowed upon King Garret Garner.

1987 saw the return of the traditional two night Homecoming celebration. Friday night the Jesuit Rangers surged to victory, defeating Crockett 21-0. At half-time, Erin McDowell was crowned Homecoming Queen. The court was composed of Hunter LaFountain, Jennifer Noble, Stacie Peake, and Elizabeth Tipton. The following night the students gathered once again for the dance at Jesuit. Dancing to "The Quick", students capped off a victorious weekend.

SENIOR INTRAMURALS

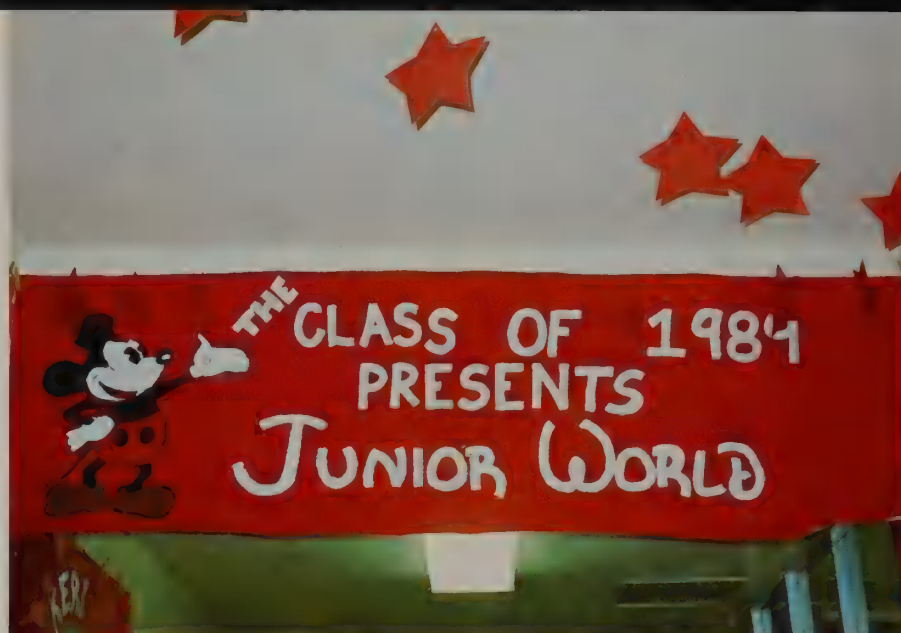

As the SENIORS last year of Intramurals came to an end, the enthusiastic volleyball players proved to be victorious over ALL underclassmen.

JUNIOR INTRAMURALS

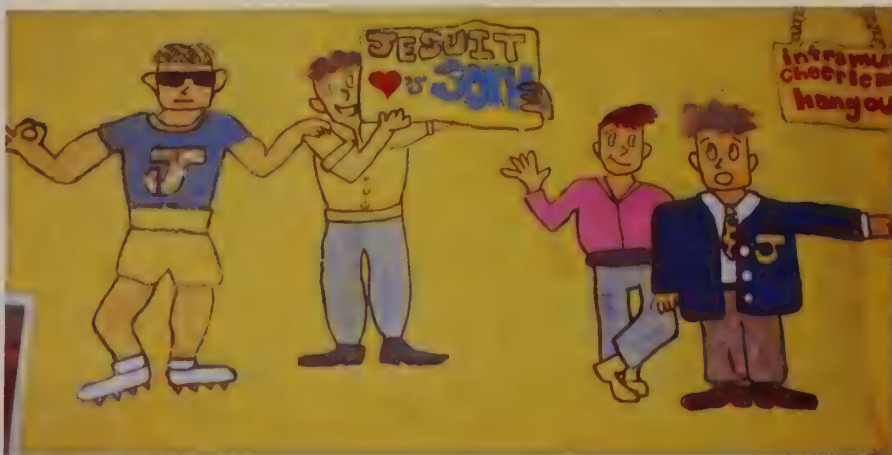

Once again the Juniors were victorious with their outnumbering spirit and original theme, 'Junior World'.

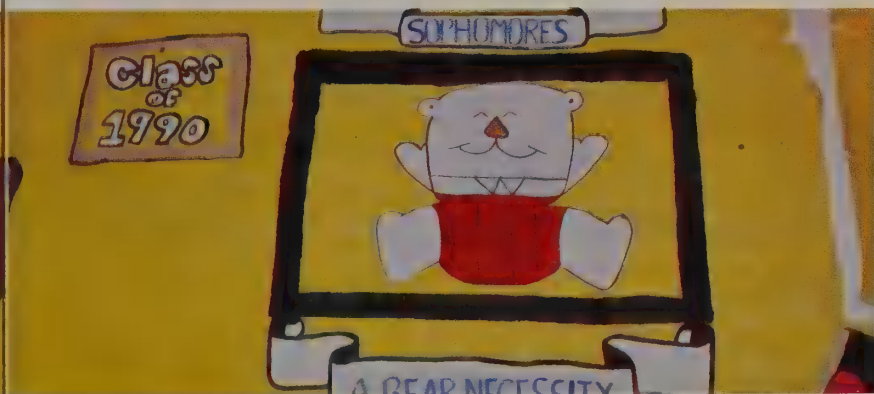

SOPHOMORE INTRAMURALS

Although the Sophomores didn't win any first place prizes, they won many second place prizes such as skit and spirit with their 'Soph Rock Cafe'.

FRESHMEN INTRAMURALS

As 'TOP FROSH' soared into the gym they captured the entire audience's attention. Their intriguing skit displayed initiative and great organization. Freshmen were awarded first place in the skit category.

SNOWBALL '88

On the wintery night of December 19, the Senior girls escorted their debonair dates to the annual Snowball Dance. The celebration was held at the Grand Kempinski Hotel and music was provided by "Optium". The Snowball court consisted of Queen Martha Werner and her Princesses Jonnyka Bormann, Teresa Messineo, and Laura Munno.

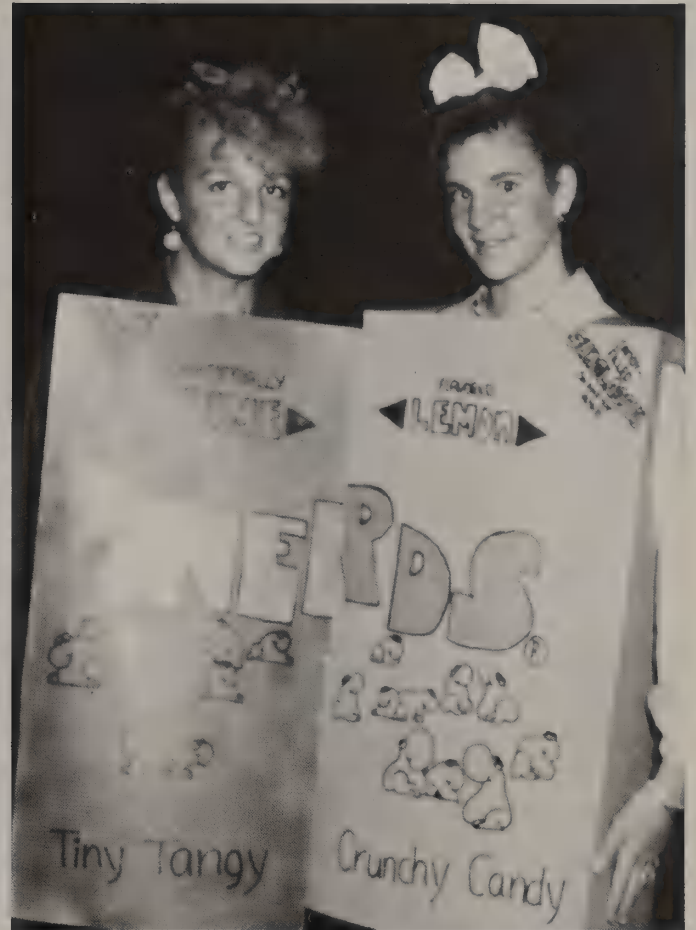

SR / SOPH JR / FROSH PICNIC

As the Seniors and Sophomores sis' reunited again from last year with lunch in Haggar Center, the Juniors and Freshmen sis' partied on the grounds of St. Joe's with the theme of 'flower children'.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

With the arrival of October 31, members from all four classes gathered in Haggard Center for the annual Senior-sponsored Halloween dance. Notable attendants included the California Raisins, Hari Krishnas, and the Wizard of Oz characters, as well as the traditional Rambos, Draculas, and belly dancers. All students seemed eager to shed their uniforms and don their costumes to enjoy a festive Halloween evening.

HOLIDAY BEAR DANCE

Capping off a week of final exams, the annual Holiday Bear Dance prepared Ursuline students for the upcoming Christmas holidays. The dance, sponsored by the Ursuline cheerleaders, featured a visit from Santa, putting all in a festive mood.

MOTHER/DAUGHTER FASHION SHOW

The Mother-Daughter Fashion Show was held in the Malachire Room of the Grand Kempinski Hotel on March 26, 1988. The theme of the show was a "Kaleidoscope of Colors." The fabulous models were members of the Senior Class and their mothers, who showed the latest fashions for Spring.

PROM 1988

The Junior-Senior Prom held on the evening of April 16 at the Downtown Hilton proved to be "Some Kind of Wonderful". Queen Margaret Pawlowicz, her princesses Diana Morris, Stephanie Scherzer, Lexy Sliva, and Amy Thomas along with the others who were fortunate enough to attend spent a glorious evening enjoying one another's company.

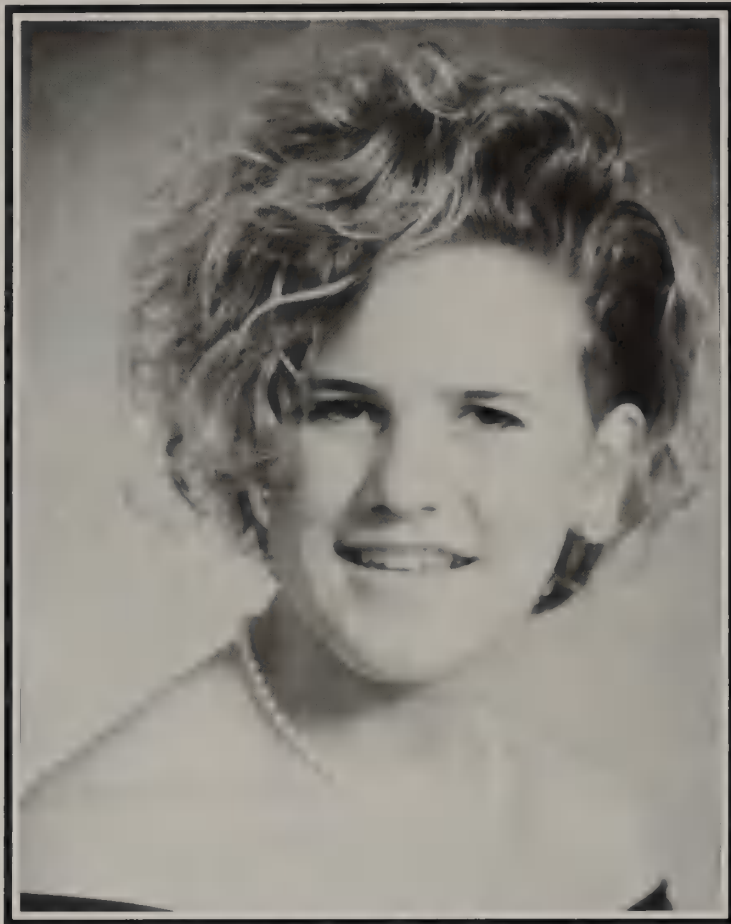

URSULINE-JESUIT TALENT SHOW

THE URSULINE-JESUIT TALENT SHOW This year the Ursuline and Jesuit Student Councils organized the first annual Ursuline-Jesuit Talent Show. The audience enjoyed various skits, dramatic readings, dance groups, bands and singers, piano concertos, and even a ventriloquist. All proceeds from this benefit were donated to the Ursuline and Jesuit missions in South America.

I'd give you time to dream and fill your youthful skies. I'd give you time to find where your own true love lies. I'd give you life, and promise each new morning sun to give you time to do the things you'd never done.

This is dedicated to my brother, Joey, from all of us that will miss him and love him forever

Coming in as a new student my Senior year was difficult for me. So, I'd like to thank everyone that took the time to say hello to me in the hallway and see how I was doing. That always gave me a big boost of encouragement. I want to give special thanks to Jeanine and Miriam. You're the best of friends!

"This time my song of love and life won't go away. I could stay forever, here in the sunshine. I've lived to see the sun break through the storm, and I'm so glad I'm standing here today." -From Infinity and Jelly Donuts

High School is a rollercoaster of storms and sunny days and I've made it through! I have seen and experienced some of the best times of my life but nevertheless I'm so glad it's all over. I'm ready to go out and experience the unknown because "it's a big galaxy out there, Mr.Scott." Fortunately, I've had people to love and support me. Thanks BU, Julie, Mom, Dad, CCGDYM, UA, and Mrs.Bauer. If I've learned nothing else I know never speak French in an elevator. JR

SOPHOMORE SERVIAM

The sophomores gathered with their senior big sisters on October 7 for Serviam. Mass was celebrated and the sophomores were presented with the traditional serviam medal. After the service, a breakfast was given for all of the sophomores and their parents. This day gave the sophomores a chance to pledge their service to Ursuline Academy while the seniors were able to remember past times.

SOPHOMORE RETREAT

The sophomore retreats this year took place at the Christian Youth Foundation in Athens, Texas. The theme of the two days was "Commitment". The retreats gave the sophomores a chance to reflect on the relationships with their peers and families, and most importantly, their prayer life with God.

Although the cross-country team did not finish high in the team standings overall there were some outstanding individual performances. Teresa Trevino led the team in individual points placing second in District and State. Marli Maloney and Diana Calistan placed in the top 20 at State also. Overall, as the season moved on the girls united and became more of a team. In response to last season Coach Vowels commented, "I am very proud of each and every one of the girls, and they all achieved personal best times."

It seems like only yesterday,
That I first saw your pretty smile.
And though the years have been creeping by,
You've always been there to share your smile.

Great times! Fair times! Bad times! Sad times!
And YOU always armed with your best lifeguard-
That UNDEFEATED SMILE!
May God forever be that LIFEGUARD,
Who keeps you smiling throughout life.

Thank you for all your warmth and love,
For all the sweet, unforgettable memories,
For your courageous support, and most of all,
Thank you for being YOU!
You've been a blessing, too!

MAY THE LORD BLESS YOU AND GUIDE YOU
ON YOUR MOST UNIQUE JOURNEY AHEAD OF YOU.

The more you give. The more you get.
The more you laugh the less you fret.
The more you do unselfishly,
The more you live abundantly . . .

The more of everything you share,
The more you'll always have to share
The more you love, the more you'll find,
That life is good and friends are kind . . .

For only what we give away,
Enriches us from day to day.
